“The Combat Infantry Machine Gunner & Concentration Camp Rescues”

Dick

O'Brien introduced S/SGT Dan Gillespie, a WWII Veteran who served in the European Theater with 42nd Infantry Division. The Division was nicknamed the Rainbow Division because it was organized with the best Regiments from 26 different states. Major Douglas MacArthur, later 5-stars, standing nearby, replied, “Fine, that will stretch over the whole country like rainbow.” The 42nd Division with 3 Regiments, landed in southern France at Marseille on Dec 8-9, 1944. The Division entered combat near Strasbourg, France along the Rhine River on December 24, 1944. The Regiment that Dan was assigned to, the 222nd Regiment, was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation during this action. He remembers being assigned as gunner with a 30 caliber water cooled machinegun. His gun crew defended a school house when the Germans attacked. The next morning, there were 151 dead German soldiers in front of his position and Dan was awarded the Silver Star for this action.

Dachau Memorial

The 42nd Division fought eastward for over 240 miles between February to April 1945 to the Austrian border. Dan displayed many photos of US soldiers fighting in the cold and snow. Anti-freeze was used in place of water in the cold weather. He saw many beautiful towns reduced to rubble during the fighting. On April 29th, 1945, in the Bavarian town of Dachau, they liberated a German Concentration Camp. The 222nd Regiment was the first unit to liberate the camp and see the atrocities that had happened there. Dan had enough photos that even the present-day Iranian President would be convinced of the Holocaust. The American troops were cautioned against feeding the freed prisoners. The prisoners had been starved almost to death and any GI high calorie food could have killed them. There was a medical staff there to administer to them.

The 42nd Division spent 106 days in combat and suffered 5,949 killed. Dan was asked if he had difficulty when he returned home after the war? He said he was just so glad to be home, nothing else mattered. A very informative cartographic map was passed out for the part of Europe where the 42nd Division served and fought. An interesting side note; there are 20 cemeteries in Europe that fly the American Flag. 104,366 Brave American servicemen never came home.

TABLE TOPICS

- Jack Hammett displayed a 4-page brochure highlighting what the Freedom Committee does and how they spread the mission of “Freedom Isn’t Free”. The brochure has been printed and is ready for the “Veterans Walk of Honor” program this March. Also each Freedom Committee member received one and is encouraged to show it around as publicity for FCOC.

- Jack Hammett introduced our new Vice Chairman Scott Williams. Scott is a Vietnam Veteran and a lawyer. Scott reported on the FCOC changing to a 501 (c) (3) non-profit Corporation soon. happen.
